Welcome of the Participants
Welcome by Béatrice von Hirschhausen, vice-director of the Marc Bloch Center

Presentation and Opening Remarks
Catherine Gousseff (CERCEC, Paris), Nathalie Moine (CERCEC, Paris), Tanja Penter (University of Heidelberg)

Afternoon Session: Broadening Space and Time of the War Crimes Judicial Proceedings
Moderator: Catherine Gousseff (CERCEC)

Presentation 1: Communist-Era Investigative Files as a Source in Holocaust Studies: Romanian and Soviet Cases in Comparative Perspective.
Vladimir Solonari (University of Central Florida, Visiting Professor at the University of Jena)

Presentation 2: War Crimes Investigations in Finland, 1944-1950
Oula Silvennoinen (University of Helsinki)

Coffee / Tea Break

Presentation 3: Wartime Choices and Postwar Ambivalences in Soviet Belorussia
Franziska Exeler (European University Institute, Firenze)

Presentation 4: Stalinist Justice Scrutinised: Postwar Soviet Investigation and Trial Documents in the Mirror of Historical Epochs
Diana Dumitru (University of Chisinau)

Discussant: Kiril Feferman (Holocaust Foundation, Moscow)

Discussion

Thursday, 27.03.2014

13.30-14.15 Welcome of the Participants
14.15-14.30 Welcome by Béatrice von Hirschhausen, vice-director of the Marc Bloch Center
14.30-15.00 Presentation and Opening Remarks
Catherine Gousseff (CERCEC, Paris), Nathalie Moine (CERCEC, Paris), Tanja Penter (University of Heidelberg)
15.00-18.30 Afternoon Session: Broadening Space and Time of the War Crimes Judicial Proceedings
Moderator: Catherine Gousseff (CERCEC)
15.00-15.30 Presentation 1: Communist-Era Investigative Files as a Source in Holocaust Studies: Romanian and Soviet Cases in Comparative Perspective.
Vladimir Solonari (University of Central Florida, Visiting Professor at the University of Jena)
15.30-16.00 Presentation 2: War Crimes Investigations in Finland, 1944-1950
Oula Silvennoinen (University of Helsinki)
16.00-16.30 Coffee / Tea Break
16.30-17.00 Presentation 3: Wartime Choices and Postwar Ambivalences in Soviet Belorussia
Franziska Exeler (European University Institute, Firenze)
17.00-17.30 Presentation 4: Stalinist Justice Scrutinised: Postwar Soviet Investigation and Trial Documents in the Mirror of Historical Epochs
Diana Dumitru (University of Chisinau)
17.30-17.50 Discussant: Kiril Feferman (Holocaust Foundation, Moscow)
17.50-18.30 Discussion

19.30 Dinner
Friday, 28.03.2014

9.00-12.30  Morning Session: Stalinist Justice and International Law
Moderator: Tanja Penter (University of Heidelberg)

9.00-9.30  Presentation 1: Cold War Warriors, Polish Emigrants and ‘Obscure Journalists’ - The “Katyn Lobby” and the Question of Prosecuting Soviet War Crimes in the West
Claudia Weber (Hamburg Institute for Social Research)

9.30-10.00  Presentation 2: Soviet War Crimes Policy in the Far East: The Bacteriological Warfare Trial at Khabarovsk, 1949
Valentyna Polunina (University of Heidelberg)

10.00-10.30  Presentation 3: Shaping War Crimes Policy for Europa: The UNWCC and its Representation of the Exile Governments in London, 1941-1945
Kerstin von Lingen (University of Heidelberg)

10.30-11.00  Coffee / Tea Break

11.00-11.30  Presentation 4: Leges speciales: The Dilemma of Legislating Postwar Retribution in Eastern and Western Europe
Andrew Kornbluth (University of California, Berkeley)

11.30-11.50  Discussant: Niels bo Poulsen (Royal Danish Defense College)

11.50-12.30  Discussion

12.30-14.00  Afternoon Session: Stalinist Justice at Home
Moderator: Claudia Weber (Hamburg Institute for Social Research)

14.00-14.30  Presentation 1: A Matter of Justice or a Political Show ? The Soviet Show Trials against German POWs’ Setup through the 1943 Trial’s Case
Nikita Petrov (Memorial Foundation, Moscow)

14.30-15.00  Presentation 2: Women-POWs as “Traitors”, Victims and Resistants: the Tribunal of Crimea’s Case
Tetiana Pastushenko (Institute of History of Ukraine, National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine, Kiev)

15.00-15.30  Presentation 3: Assessing The KGB Sources for a Local Inquiry on Jewish Population Massacres: The Case of Hincauti and Cepeleuti (Uezd Balti, Moldova)
Patrice Bensimon (Yahad-in-Unum, Paris)

15.30-16.00  Coffee / Tea Break

16.00-16.30  Presentation 4: Soviet Postwar Trials against Jewish Defendants
Tanja Penter (University of Heidelberg)

16.30-17.00  Presentation 5: Locating the Truth in the Stalinist Context: Two Cases of Early Depositions and Late Amnesia, Riga, Petropavlovsk, 1944
Nathalie Moine (CERCEC, Paris)

17.00-17.20  Discussant: Amir Weiner (University of Stanford)

17.20-18.00  Discussion

19.30  Dinner
Saturday 29.03.2014

09.00-12.30  Morning Session: East-West Judicial Cooperation
Moderator: Nathalie Moine (CERCEC, Paris)

09.00-09.30  Presentation 1: Playing the “Nuremberg” Card: The GDR and the Politics of International Criminal Law
Annette Weinke (University of Jena)

09.30-10.00  Presentation 2: Requested and Unrequested Investigation Material from the Soviet Union - Main FRG Recipient Zentral Stelle in Ludwigsburg (1961-1976)
Jasmin Söhner (University of Heidelberg)

10.00-10.30  Presentation 3: Aleksandr Pecherskii as Actor and Witness in the Prosecution of the Sobibor Guards
Leonid Terushkin (Holocaust Foundation, Moscow)

10.30-11.00  Coffee / Tea Break

Martin Dean (USHMM, Washington)

11.30-11.50  Discussant: Peter Klein (Hamburg Institute for Social Research)

11.50-12.30  Discussion

12.30-14.00  Lunch

14.00-15.30  Afternoon Session 1: Investigating the Ukrainian Nationalist Past in the Cold War Context
Moderator: Catherine Gousseff (CERCEC, Paris)

14.00-14.30  Presentation 1: “Not quite Klaus Barbie, but in that Category”: Mykola Lebed, the CIA, the OUN (z) and Nazi War Crimes
Per Rudling (University of Lund)

Ivan Dereiko (Institut of History of Ukraine, National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine, Kiev)

15.00-15.20  Discussant: Andrej Angrick (Hamburg Institute for Social Research)

15.20-15.45  Discussion

15.45-16.00  Coffee / Tea Break

16.00-18.30  Afternoon Session 2: Evaluating Judicial Sources Through Alternative Narratives
Moderator: Tanja Penter (University of Heidelberg)

16.00-16.30  Presentation 1: Nazi Crimes in the Soviet Union as Described in Letters, Diaries and Memoirs of Natives of Belarus, 1941-1945. A Comparative Analysis
Leonid Smilovitsky (University of Tel Aviv)

16.30-17.00  Presentation 2: Combining Sources from the Past and Oral Testimonies from the Present: The Extermination of the Gypsies of the Collective Farm of Aleksandrovka, Smolensk Oblast, 1942
Andrej Umansky (Köln University, Yahad-in-Unum, Paris)

17.00-17.20  Discussant: Catherine Gousseff (CERCEC, Paris)

17.20-18.30  Discussion and Concluding Remarks

19.30  Dinner